KIDS TALK

PASTOR'S NOTES

To our Wonderful Families:

Love, love, love...that's what February is all about. And don't we need some warm thoughts during this extremely cold February? Everyone needs to hear they are loved. One of the best moments as a mom of young children was when they would spontaneously crawl up onto my lap, put their arms around my neck, look me in the eyes and say, "I love you mom". Nothing can compare to the warm feelings of gratitude and love that such a moment generates. Just as we are filled up by our children's declaration of love for us, our children are filled up by our words of affirmation and love for them. There are many unspoken ways we tell them we love them...providing shelter, food, play dates, but nothing, nothing substitutes for getting eyeball to eyeball, and with the deep sincerity of the privilege of being their mom or dad, saying "I love you". These words, genuinely spoken, are the very foundation of trust and a deep sense of belonging and security each child needs to develop and grow into the fullness of the person God, in God's love, has created them to be. So I encourage you to be extravagant this month (and every month); extravagant not with THINGS, but extravagant with your genuine words of LOVE to your child(ren).

Filled with God's love,
Pastor Connie

Burrrrrrr, it's cold!

Hats, gloves and warm coats are essentials during this cold season. When the temperature gets to 32 and sunny, we go outside, so don't forget to send your child prepared each day. If you desire, you may leave a hat and gloves in the cubby with your child's change of clothing.

REMEMBER...make sure all items are labeled so they do not get lost.
